The ATHD is a "virtual help desk" available 24/7 linking formal and informal training customer assistance. Customers can connect using a central web location, e-mail, and toll-free telephones to . . .

Find answers using Frequently Asked Questions

Leverage an Armywide network of SMEs using Ask a Question

Track questions and receive the latest training updates using My Profile

ATHD Customer Support Page - Microsoft Internet Explorer
Army Training Help Desk
ATSC Homepage
Help using this Site
Find Answers
Ask a Question
My Profile
Login
Help
Search
Browse
Category
Search Text (optional)
Search
All Categories
Search by Phrases
623 Answers Found
Page: 1 of 52 Go
Subject
1 Updated - ACCP On-line Course
2 Updated - Mobility Warrant Officer Course
3 Special Forces Training
4 Updated - Promotion Point Conversion
5 Updated - CIA World Fact-Book
6 Updated - What is ATRRS?
7 Updated - ATRRS report
8 Updated - Training lock-in period
9 Updated - What is a TRAP?
10 Updated - Changing/Updating Information in WTS (Weekly Train
11 Updated - Retirement Points for Correspondenc Courses
12 Updated - ACCP Cancel Enrollment
Click here for contact numbers.
Click Here to see the current Fort Eustis time.

https://www.ask-atsc.atsc.army.mil

The Army Training Help Desk allows:

- Soldiers and Civilians to receive customer assistance 24/7 anytime and anywhere.
- An Armywide network of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) to provide authoritative answers to your questions, and system-wide tracking to ensure your questions are solved.
- Proponent schools and training support organizations to monitor the quality of customer support and customer satisfaction.

Contact the Army Training Help Desk
1-800-275-2872 or help@atsc.army.mil